

WOMEN RIOT IN CHURCH

MANY MADE MAD BY MENACING DEATH

TORRE ANNUNZIATA, APRIL 9.—THE PEOPLE OF THIS TOWN ARE TREMENDOUSLY EXCITED. A RUMOR WAS STARTED TO THE EFFECT THAT THE VISIT OF THE KING AND QUEEN OF ITALY AND THE DUKE OF AOSTA HAD RESULTED IN A MIRACLE. SINGULARLY ENOUGH, SHORTLY AFTER THE ARRIVAL OF THE SOVEREIGNS, AND WHILE THE KING AND QUEEN WERE TRYING TO CONSOLE THE PEOPLE, REPEATING FREQUENTLY "COURAGE, BE STRONG," THE WIND SUDDENLY CHANGED, AND THE ATMOSPHERE, WHICH UP TO THAT MOMENT HAD BEEN IMPREGNATED WITH SULPHUROUS GAS AND SUFFOCATING FUMES, CLEARED AWAY AND THE SUN BURST FORTH, THE STREAM OF LAVA STOPPED ITS MARCH AFTER HAVING DESTROYED A SECTION OF THE NORTHEAST PART OF THE SUBURB AND THE ADJACENT COUNTRY. THE AIR RANG WITH BENEDICTIONS FOR THE KING FROM HIS DEVOTED SUBJECTS. HOPE AT ONCE RETURNED AND THE KING AND QUEEN WERE PREPARING TO MOVE ON, BUT THE PEOPLE INSISTED THAT THEY REMAIN, BEGGING THAT THEY BE NOT ABANDONED. THE KING AND QUEEN WISHED TO VISIT OTHER DISTRICTS, BUT THE RAILWAY WAS INTERRUPTED, AND THEY WERE FORCED TO RETURN TO NAPLES, WHENCE THEY SET OUT FOR OTTAJANO AND TORRE DEL GRECO. CROWDS OF WOMEN ATTACKED THE CHURCHES, PULLED DOWN THE DOORS AND TOOK POSSESSION OF PICTURES AND STATUES.

HALF-MILLION PEOPLE FLEE BEFORE MOVING SEA OF LAVA

NAPLES, April 9, 11:55 a. m.—King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena arrived here this morning from Rome and set out for the towns and villages in the path of the lava stream pouring down the sides of Mount Vesuvius. When their train arrived at the station the eruption was most violent. Both the King and Queen, although greatly fatigued, insisted that they should leave immediately for Torre Annunziata, the King saying: "If Torre Annunziata is in danger, it is my duty to be there."

The upper picture is that of the Queen of Italy and her two eldest children, Princess Yolanda and Princess Mafalda. The lower picture is the King of Italy. The King and Queen are braving the dangers of threatening Vesuvius.

NAPLES, April 9.—The situation this morning can be summarized as follows:

The conditions at Torre Annunziata, Torre del Greco and Pompeii have improved, owing to a change in the direction taken by the flowing lava. On the other hand, the conditions at Ottajano are worse.

The ashes and cinders which have fallen there are four feet deep and frequent earthquake shocks are felt. Several houses and four churches have fallen, five people have been killed and an unknown number of persons have been injured.

FEAR FOR PEOPLE.

Serious apprehension is felt for the inhabitants of the country in the vicinity of Caserta, termed the Versailles of Naples, a place of about 35,000 inhabitants, in which direction the lava is now flowing.

The town of Nola is being buried under the showers of ashes coming from the crater, which are carried by the wind as far as the Adriatic sea. Nola is a very old town twenty-two miles from Naples, having about 15,000 inhabitants.

LAKE OF CHOCOLATE.

NAPLES, April 9, 12:30 p. m.—The quantity of ashes and cinders thrown up by Mount Vesuvius in twenty-four hours is unprecedented. An analysis shows this discharge to be chiefly composed of iron, calcium and silica.

When dry the whole region seemed to be under a gray sheet, but now, after a fall of rain, it appears to have been transformed into an immense lake of chocolate.

The evacuation of the threatened villages and towns continues, but means to transport the inhabitants are lacking, although thousands of soldiers with artillery cars have been sent to the places where the sufferers are most in need of assistance.

PEOPLE ARE SUFFERING.

At many places the people are suffering from panic and a state of great confusion exists, which has been added to by superstition. Some of the parish priests refused to open their churches to the people who tried to obtain admittance, fearing that an earthquake would destroy them when full of people and thus increase the disaster.

Crowds of women attacked the churches, pulled down the doors and took possession of the pictures and statues of the saints, which they carried about as a protection against death.

DEFYING ELEMENTS.

Many people camped along the roads and in the fields outside Torre Annun-

KING AND QUEEN IN MIDST OF DANGER

PARTY IS STRUCK BY A WAVE OF VOLCANO'S ASHES.

NAPLES, April 9.—3:15 p. m.—The sovereigns visited Santa Anastasia, Cercola, Somma and Vesuviana, arousing the same enthusiasm among the people as when they first reached the scene of the disaster.

At a certain point the king and his suite, who occupied several automobiles, were struck by a small cyclone of ashes and cinders, which partly blinded, choked and stopped them.

FEAR FOR KING.

As the king's motor car was the first and was some distance ahead of the cars in which the members of his suite were riding, it was lost sight of for some time. In the clouds of whirling ashes, and considerable anxiety was felt for his majesty's safety, but it was seen presently that the king had ordered his automobile to be driven at full speed ahead, and so crossed the path of the cyclone with great rapidity.

PARTY IS HALTED.

A short distance further on, however, the ashes were four feet deep, making it impossible for the royal party to continue their route in the motor cars.

Consequently, the king and his suite descended and continued their way on foot.

Later in the afternoon his majesty and the party returned to Naples and visited the temporary lodging places prepared for the fugitives.

KISS KING'S HAND.

NAPLES, April 9.—The Duke and Duchess of Aosta and the Princess of Schleswig-Holstein, who is the guest of the Duke and Duchess of Aosta, joined the king and queen in their visit to the afflicted districts. The royal party was received with the most touching manifestations of gratitude, amidst cheers and weeping, expressions of thanks and frantic gesticulations of joy.

The king forbade the police and carabinieri to keep the people away from him, so that all could approach him. Women kissed the king's hand and the queen's gown, exclaiming "God sent you to us." One of the women, addressing the king, cried: "If thou art our king, order the volcano to stop."

UNREQUITTED LOVE CAUSES SUICIDE

SONORA, April 9.—Frank A. Agnelli, a barber, aged 21 years, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head while seated in a chair in his shop last night. He had been suffering from

BABY WANDERS AWAY, SPENDS NIGHT IN JAIL; MOTHER THINKS IT'S DEAD

MARIE PEREZ, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Perez, of North Oakland, who wandered away and spent the night in the Police Station of Berkeley while her parents searched everywhere.

A group of jockeys, a ten-cent piece, a two-year-old babe wandering away from home, and a frantic father and mother were the motif for a little drama enacted in North Oakland between 1 p. m. Saturday and 10 a. m. yesterday morning.

In the early afternoon of Saturday a jockey sauntered into the saloon at 1149 Stanford avenue, owned by James Perez, and bought refreshment. Little Marie, the tiny two-year-old babe of the proprietor, was playing around the front door, and in placing his change back in his pocket the jockey tossed Marie a dime, and left the place.

The baby, remembering the long strips of pink and white candy usually the outcome of the presentation of a nickel or dime, looked about for her mother, and failing to find her, toddled out of the doorway and down the street, her soiled pink gingham waving in the breeze, her hand tightly clasping her precious dime and her baby mind intent upon the purchase of that candy.

The Perez family is but new to the locality, and so no one recognized baby Marie, who ambled along contentedly until her tiny feet pattered on the pavements of West Berkeley, blocks and blocks away.

DR. DOWIE THREATENS TO MAKE ARRESTS ON CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY

CHICAGO, April 9.—A report was received in Zion City today that John Alexander Dowie, upon his arrival in Zion City will cause the immediate arrest of General Overseer Vollra and the members of his council on a charge of conspiracy.

The rumor caused great anxiety in Zion City and the announcement was made that if Dowie took such action his own arrest would follow immediately, and upon a charge more serious than has yet been made public.

PREPARE FOR FIGHT.

Preparations have been made to counteract any movement that may be made by Dowie in the direction of causing arrests. Bonds have been prepared by the officers of the Zion Church so that it will not be necessary for them to leave Zion City.

Deacon Whitte left Zion City today with the $500 he was asked by Dowie to forward. He declined to say whether

SALOONMEN OBJECT TO 1 O'CLOCK DRINKS

ASSOCIATION NOT IN FAVOR OF PROPOSED MEASURE.

The proposal to pass an ordinance permitting all places where drinks are served to keep open until 1 o'clock in the morning, instead of 12 o'clock at night, as at present prevails, does not have the endorsement of the saloonmen of the city as represented by the Royal Arch, or the State association of liquor dealers.

It is not the desire of the saloon to keep open after 12 o'clock, but in event that the City Council desired to pass an ordinance permitting the restaurants of the city to sell liquor with meals after 12 o'clock, there would be no protest.

REASON GIVEN.

In the event that the proposed ordinance is introduced, it will be on the ground that Oakland is about to have a first class restaurant to be known as the Forum, located at the corner of Thirteenth and Broadway, adjoining the eleven-story bank building.

This restaurant is to be finished and fitted in a manner that will make it a keen competitor of the large cafes of San Francisco. If the 12 o'clock ordinance is maintained it will not allow meals, accompanied by beer or wine, to be served after 12 o'clock. This would exclude most of the theater parties and others that wished to dine after the hour of midnight had been passed. The members of the Council in favor of the ordinance state that as it has reached the stage when a scraper is making a near-run, and other improvements, particularly in the restaurant line, are being made, it is time to encourage the investment of capital.

LAW IS EVADED.

It is pointed out that the restaurants now being conducted are unable to sell liquor after 12 o'clock, but that to evade the law it is sold in private boxes where the keen eyes of the law seldom reach. The new restaurant, which is being fitted up at a cost of $50,000 in the interior, will not have any boxes and will not be able to

SUPERVISORS CONSIDER COUNTY MATTERS

Escrow Fund Reported, Public Money
Counted, Seminary Avenue Be Bridged and Paved.

At the meeting of the Supervisors this morning, Messrs. Kelley and Mitchell were absent.

The requisition of the District Attorney for a copy of "Farrell's Criminal Law" was granted.

The request of Manuel Vargas for the cancellation of a certificate of sale of property for non-payment of poll-tax was referred to the County Assessor. Vargas asserts that he was over 60 years of age when the tax became due.

Applications for liquor licenses were received as follows and referred to the License Committee: Thomas Kink, Warm Springs Hotel, Christ Warren, Ocean View, A. S. Caldeira, Newark, Francis Joseph Fisher, southeast corner of East Fourteenth and Tevis streets.

Licenses were awarded as follows: John Henningsen, Alvarado, Hennas & Zuhra, San Lorenzo; M. P. Silva, Newark.

The application of M. P. Silva, for a saloon license at Newark was laid over for two weeks. The same disposition was made of the application for a license of Charles Allen, Pleasant Valley.

against the granting of which a protest had been filed. The County Surveyor was instructed to make a survey of location of the two residences of the signers with respect to the proposed saloon, to see if the application had the right number of legal signers. But the surveyor will not be able to report till next week.

Coroner Mehrmann reported that he had held twenty-seven inquests during March. Filed.

Health Officer Cabral of Centerville reported one case of diphtheria and one case of smallpox and two quarantined cases. Filed.

The map of Redwood Park was filed with the understanding, however, that none of the thoroughfares in it would be accepted for the county.

The report of the viewers in the matter of the abandonment of a road on Spring Valley property in Vallejos Road District was adopted. It is the intention to have another road established to take the place of the old one, which has been badly cut away by the action of Vallejos creek.

PAVING BOND.
The bond of the Ransome Construction Company for the improvement of Seminary avenue was approved, and the chairman of the board was authorized to sign the contract. The improvement consists in the macadamizing and bridging of Seminary avenue a distance 450 feet from the north line of the Oakland Science Boulevard, south to Brooklyn Road District. The bond was in the sum of $3000 with the Actina Indemnity Company of Hartford as surety.

FIRE FIGHTERS.
In committee of the whole the Supervisors considered the legality of appointing fire wardens to act in extinguishing forest fires in the county. The request for the same was made by cattle and sheep men in the vicinity of Livermore. The applicants showed that a great deal of damage had been done by last season's fires in their vicinity and that as a consequence, flocks and herds had been driven from the county in search of pasturage which would otherwise have been assessed in this county.

FULL BOARD NEEDED.
District Attorney Allen was present at the conference, but no decision was arrived at. No action, however, will be taken on the subject until all the members of the board can be present.

COUNTY TREASURY CASH.
Supervisor Mitchell's absence was occasioned by the counting of the money in the county treasury, in which the law requires him to take part. That count was in progress this morning.

ESCROW FUND.
County Treasurer Kelly sent in a report showing the amount of money disbursed from and in the several county funds. In this report, for the first time, appeared a showing of the money paid out by the county to litigants under order of the court, pending the determination of suits. The item to the credit of this fund was $30,400, which is on deposit in the name of the county treasurer in the Oakland Bank of Savings. Heretofore no reference was made to this fund by county treasurers in their reports, and it was from this fund, it is alleged, that the late county treasurer took the $15,000 which occasioned the deficit charged against him.

Adjudged till next Monday at 8:30 o'clock.

CLOSING DAY FOR COMPETITION

UNIVERSITY SONG CONTEST TO BE ENDED THIS AFTERNOON.

BERKELEY, April 9.—Feeling the need of an original song to be sung by the college writers, a prize competition was started some time ago by the editor of the Daily Californian in order that the University should have a song that was not a copy from the songs used by Eastern colleges. CAMBRIDGE EASY WINNER IN BIG RACE

Oxford Men Were Completely Out-classed by Their Rivals in Contest.

LONDON, April 9.—The sixty-third annual boat race between crews representing the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, was rowed today over the usual course from Putney to Mortlake, on the Thames, a little over four and one-half miles. Cambridge won by three and a half lengths, after an exciting contest. Time, 19 minutes 24 seconds.

The Cambridge, from the start, took the lead and was never in the slightest danger. The Oxford men struggled gamely, but the work was so punishing that several of them collapsed at the finish.

The weather was perfect. The day was bright and sunny, the wind was very light and the water was smooth, and there was very little choice in the stations. Enormous crowds thronged all parts of the course.

Oxford won the toss and chose the Surrey side. The two boats got away nicely at 12:03 p. m. Cambridge struck the water first, pulling 38 strokes during the first minute, to Oxford's 37.

The nose of the Cambridge boat quickly showed in front, and at the half-mile post Cambridge was a half length to the good and was rowing in lively style, with perfect finish to their strokes. They increased their lead to a full length before Craven Steps, about three-quarters of a mile from the start, were reached. The Cambridge boat drew away with every stroke.

AN EASY WINNER.
At Hammersmith Bridge, one and three-quarters of a mile from the start, Cambridge already had the race well in hand, with a lead of two lengths. The Oxford boat at that stage of the race was rolling badly. Shortly afterward the Oxford men spurted a little and took their rivals' water, but from that time on it was merely a procession, though the Oxford oarsmen stuck to their work in a most persevering way. Cambridge shot past Barnes Bridge, a little over three and one-half miles from the start, about five lengths in front of the Oxford boat, some of whose oarsmen were showing signs of distress.

Cambridge could have won practically by any distance they liked, but their stroke slowed down on nearing the finish, and the Oxford boat passed the winning post the easiest of winners.

DANCED AT BALL WHILE HEART WAS BREAKING

Beautiful Young Girl Causes the Arrest of a Brutal Father.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Miss Blanche Robert, a beautiful young girl prominent in the social affairs of the French colony of this city, appeared before Judge Shortall this morning and swore to a warrant on which her father was held in $10,000 bonds to answer to the charge of threats against her life. The young lady testified that she was compelled last night to arm herself and protect the family against her father returning in evening dress from a reception.

"All my life this man has provided amply for me and enabled me to make a good appearance in society," said Miss Robert, "but at the same time he has indulged himself in exhibitions of the most ungovernable temper. He will come into the house and abuse his family simply to gratify his whim of tyranny. He has threatened to kill us on the slightest provocation, or none at all, working himself up into a frenzy of rage and behaving like a demon. God knows what I have endured in silence rather than make a scandal. But I will endure no more. The limit of human capacity for suffering has been passed, and this diabolical conduct will never occur in this house again. I am now of age, and I owe something to myself. I went to the Chief of Police last night and told him I would not be responsible for that man's life unless he was locked up at once. Then I went to a reception and danced while my heart was almost breaking for I was nervous to desperation and would certainly have shot him had he come to the house and threatened again.

LIKE TIGRESS AT BAY.
"It all came to a climax last night when I shielded my little brother from him with my own body, holding him by the throat and putting the point of a dagger at his breast. He has smashed down the door to my room after the little fellow had fled to me for protection. Standing in front of the cowardly little brother I felt like a hunted animal driven to bay. I would have fought like a tigress before I would have yielded, and he saw it and slunk away. When a girl is driven to such a condition of mind as that right here, in a civilized city, I think it is time for something to be done. The man is a brute if he is my father, and will prosecute him until I am assured that this reign of terror has come to an end.

NERVED BY DESPAIR.
"Last night I got a revolver and waited until I heard that he was asleep and in bed. Then I gave way, but now I am myself again and am resolved to go through with the thing in spite of the notoriety. He has been in terror so long that it is a relief to escape by any means. He began last Wednesday by threatening to kill grandma unless she left the house. He said he would wring her neck. Then he started in to rave about the place, kicking the tablecloth from the table and scattering the dishes about the dining-room. We called the police by telephone, and he subsided for the time being only to threaten more than ever after the officers left."

FRESNO TAKES A HOLIDAY

PEOPLE ARE PLEASED TO HAVE A CLUB IN THE LEAGUE.

Fresno, April 9.—All Fresno took a half holiday this afternoon to celebrate the debut of the Raisin City into the Pacific Coast Baseball League. The weather was ideal. An automobile parade, containing sixty machines, made its way through the principal streets of the town. Each machine picked up a player on the way. The machines were decorated with flowers. The parade went as far as the Santa Fe depot, where the players were transferred to street cars and taken to the park. The Sixth Regiment band headed the procession. At Recreation Park the clubs made a grand entry to the ball grounds amid the cheering of the crowd.

The exercises at the park were opened with a speech on baseball by the Hon. Frank H. Short. The chairman of the team, the "Raisin Beaters," the name chosen by a committee of business men at the end of a contest among the local fans. The Rev. Duncan Wallace pitched the ball over the plate.

LEFT LARGE ESTATE.
SALEM, Mass., April 9.—The will of E. C. Swift, the millionaire packer, was admitted to probate today in this city. Except for a public donation of $6000 and small annuities for long time employees of Mr. Swift, the estate, estimated at about $10,000,000, is left in trust for the benefit of the family of the testator.

POSTAL CONGRESS.
ROME, April 9.—King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena accompanied by the court officials today inaugurated the international postal congress in the capitol, in the presence of the diplomatic corps. Delegates were present from all parts of the world, including Abyssinia and China, which were not represented at the former conference.

EDELMAN A NOTARY.
SACRAMENTO, April 9.—Charles Edelman was today re-appointed a notary public for San Francisco by Governor Pardee.

CHICAGO, April 9.—John A. Linn, clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook county, and formerly clerk of the Superior Court of Cook county, today entered a plea of guilty to a charge of conspiracy to defraud, and was given an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary.

Linn was indicted upon more than a score of charges, one of which was conspiracy to defraud the county of money through the manipulation of jurors' pay checks. He was also charged with embezzlement of the public money, larceny and a number of other offenses of a like character. By the advice of his counsel, he agreed to plead guilty to the charge of conspiracy to defraud and to restore the money taken from the county.

REFUSE POSITIONS IN THE NAVY

WASHINGTON, April 7.—In the three months, ending March 31, 243 persons have resigned their employment at the navy department or in navy yards, or refused to accept positions under the navy department after being certificated by the civil service commission to the Secretary of the Navy.

The percentage is unusually large, and Secretary Bonaparte is worried about the lack of available candidates for employment of a like character.

The pay in the navy department is lower than in any other departments.

WILL COMPLETE A WIRELESS STATION

VALLEJO, April 9.—Master Electrician Hanson will leave the Mare Island navy yard today to complete the wireless station at Point Arguello. Already the station has been connected with San Diego, 400 miles away. From Point Arguello Mr. Hanson will proceed to Point Loma, 12 miles from San Diego, where the wireless plant will have three times the capacity of that at Point Arguello, and when completed it is believed can connect with Honolulu. This station will be completed by June 1.

TONOPAH, Nev., April 9.—Thomas Logan, sheriff of Nye county, was shot and killed last night at Manhattan by a gambler known as "Biondy" Barry.

Logan attempted to prevent a pistol duel between Barry and another gambler, and received the shots which killed him.

He leaves a wife and eight children, three of whom are attending school at Oakland, Cal.

Up to the present time, neither the local police department nor Sheriff Barnes' office have been notified by the Nye county authorities of the murder of Sheriff Thomas Logan.

His name does not appear in the city directory and the whereabouts of his family are not known.

MARQUIS OF GRAHAM FAILS TO GET A SEAT IN PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, April 9.—The election yesterday in the bye election of Suffolk resulted in the election of H. Pearson, Liberal, a son of Sir Westman Pearson, by a majority of 191 over the Marquis of Graham. Conservative, eldest son of the Duke of Montrose.

The campaign was known as the "ladies' battle," because the most prominent figures in it were Lady Mary Hamilton, the richest woman in Great Britain, who is engaged to be married to the Marquis of Graham, and the young wife of Pearson.

The small Liberal majority is chiefly due to the intense popularity in the county of Lady Mary, who appealed personally to the voters and asked them to give her as a wedding present the election to the parliament of her future husband.

FUNERAL OF THE JUDGE NYE

Impressive Services Held at the First Presbyterian Church Saturday

The final act in the career of the late Judge Stephen G. Nye took place Saturday, when the remains of the veteran jurist were laid to rest in the family plot, Mountain View Cemetery.

The interment was witnessed by a number of people among whom were the bereaved family and many personal friends.

The funeral services were held in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church of which society the deceased had long been a devout and exemplary member.

On the platform were arranged the floral tributes with which many citizens testified to the esteem in which they held the deceased. The mementoes were rich in color and fragrance, and the blending added only to the effect of the sentiment to which flowers gave expression. The alcove at the back of the platform was delicately trellised and upon invisible supports were trained carnation pinks and white roses. On the right and left sides of the dais were arranged large contrasting clusters of lilac and Easter lilies.

The services were opened by a mixed quartet singing in a most sympathetic manner, "Some Time We'll Understand." Rev. Dr. E. E. Baker, pastor of the church, then read a scriptural psalm which he followed by an eloquent prayer, in which he indirectly referred to the qualities of the deceased and asked comfort for the afflicted family in their bereavement.

The quartet then sang "Lead Kindly Light" after which Rev. Dr. Baker pronounced a fervid eulogy upon the deceased.

He considered him as a man, as a professional gentleman, as a member of the church and as a citizen, and urged him as an example in all these respects.

The quartet then rendered "Sleep on, Beloved, Sleep and Take Thy Rest," after which benediction was pronounced.

The singers were Mrs. E. J. Jolly, soprano; Mrs. C. E. Rowlands, alto; J. Rhine, tenor; Clement P. Rowlands, bass. The chapel was filled with people, many of whom were women. Among the gatherings were a number of men with gray hair and grayer beards, not a few of whom had known the deceased for a generation.

The bench of this county remembered their predecessor, being represented by Judges Ellsworth, Ogden, Hall, Gibson and Yule.

The pallbearers were Judge S. P. Hall, J. B. Richardson, George Payne, L. C. Morehouse, Dr. Victor Putnam and Dudley Kinsell.

Among the floral tributes were the following: Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church—Spray of white carnations.

THUGS MAKE AN ATTACK ON WM. LENSCH

He Is Terribly Beaten on Union Square Avenue While on His Way Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—William Lensch, employed as an entry clerk at the German Hospital, was the victim of a mysterious assault while walking on Union Square avenue near Stockton street, at 12:30 o'clock this morning. As the result of the attack upon him by two murderous assailants, Lensch is now lying at the German Hospital suffering from a severely lacerated scalp and a possible fracture of the skull.

Lensch was near the corner of Stockton street and Union Square avenue, when he noticed two men following him. His pursuers were on opposite sides of the street and kept in the shadows of the trees and buildings.

As Lensch had about determined to take to his heels, the thugs rushed upon him. Before he had an opportunity to cry for help Lensch was struck a terrific blow upon the crown of the head with a blackjack and felled to the street, with blood gushing from an ugly laceration of the scalp.

In the belief that he was about to be murdered, Lensch screamed loudly for assistance. The two thugs lost their nerve, left their victim lying in the street and fled through Union Square, disappearing in the darkness.

Policeman Behan reached Lensch's side in a few minutes and found him lying in a semi-conscious condition in a pool of blood. He responded to treatment at the hospital and was soon out of danger.

Lensch thinks that his assailants were highwaymen, and that they expected to knock him unconscious with one blow and rifle his pockets at their leisure, but were frightened off by his cries for assistance.

The police are inclined to the opinion that the assault was the outcome of a quarrel, the method of settling a private grudge.

The President and Congress.

There is a large sum of money covered into the treasury at Washington, the proceeds of sales of cotton which was taken possession of as goods "contraband of war." From the time of the seizure of this cotton claims against it have been alleged on the ground that a very large percentage of it was the property of loyal citizens of the United States, and that an injustice was done in its confiscation. Whatever the merit of this controversy may be, the treasury holds a very large amount of money which is claimed in equity by the citizens of the country.

Recently the representatives of these claimants approached the President for the purpose of securing his interested interference on their behalf. They explained that the money in the treasury from this source belonged to their clients, but that it required an act of Congress to secure the proper recognition of the rights of these claimants and to establish a method of distribution which would restore to the rightful owners the proceeds of the sale of their property.

We have telegraphic authority, attended by every element of probability, that the answer made by the President to these petitioners was that he "could not control Congress," and in proof of this he cited the legislation concerning the rate measures now before Congress.

President Roosevelt will live in history not only as one of the great Presidents of the United States, but as one of the great men of his time. More than any man in his generation he has manifested the capacity to attract and hold the confidence of the masses of men. His election as President was the greatest personal triumph ever achieved by any ruler. His personality was one of the forced issues of the campaign. He was charged with imperialism—with a disregard for the prerogatives of the co-ordinate branches of the government—with a disposition to meddle in the affairs of Congress beyond all constitutional warrant, even to the length of an attempt to usurp the prerogatives of the Congress of the United States in its right to initiate action and to become the author of government policies as crystallized into legislative enactment. He was declared to be unsafe, and the associated capital of the country especially voiced its apprehension that his aggressive energy was founded upon a zeal for the accomplishment of some good to the country which would outrun his discretion. The stalwart vigor of his entire personality, physical, intellectual and moral, lent color to these accusations, but the people of the United States believed in his patriotism and believed equally in his wisdom. They accredited him with perfect honesty and deep sincerity—and instinctively the human mind accepts these qualities as conclusive evidence of the highest wisdom. Convince the public that a man is sincere in his advocacy of the right and perfect confidence in the wisdom of such a ruler would be the result.

The people of this country are with the President in the measures he has proposed for the regulation of interstate commerce carried by rail, and its temporary defeat will only hasten its ultimate victory.

Notwithstanding all this, it is altogether obvious that executive encroachments upon legislative prerogative are inexpedient and unwise.

The Constitution of the United States declares that "all legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives."

There is a marvelous lucidity of statement in this, and it borrows clearness by the further provision of the Constitution relating to the duties of the office of President, wherein that instrument declares that "He (the President) shall from time to time give to the Congress information of the state of the Union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient."

It was the intention of the framers of the Constitution that the President should utter his opinions as to the general welfare by messages setting forth his views as to the state of the Union, and making suggestions as to the necessity of legislation, whether reformatory or constructive, but there is not the slightest gleam of suggestion in the instrument that the President should have the right to force his views upon Congress by executive influence. Being charged with the duty of suggestion and advice is not attended by a presumption of rightful interference and coercion of the legislative branch of the government.

Our government is not a democracy. It is a republic. It is not government by the people, but government by representatives of the people. The administration of our affairs is confided to three co-ordinate branches, the executive, legislative and judicial. The safest course to pursue is to preserve these co-ordinate branches of government wholly free from interference with each other. If the executive branch may with propriety accompany its suggestions and advice as to the state of the Union or the general welfare with detailed suggestions as to legislation and then wield the power and influence inherent in the executive for the enactment of such suggested legislation into law, the executive would become responsible for all legislation during the administration of the incumbent of the office of President, and Congress would not only escape responsibility, but its prerogative would go into disuse. To augment the executive prerogative at the expense of the legislative would be a long step in the direction of the subversion of our republican form of government, and the substitution of a monarchy.

When this country reaches a condition where a President possessing strong personality, characterized by aggressive energy, dominates the Congressional mind, directs legislation, initiates legislative measures, and through the menace of the veto and the coercion of the appointing power usurps in the slightest degree the prerogative of legislation, he will have inaugurated a condition which, if persisted in, will enfeeble the legislative branch of the government, and to whatever extent this branch loses its power and influence to that extent the democratic aspect of our form of government is threatened with extinction.

The legislative branch of the government is the one which brings the government and the people into closer unity. To preserve the prerogatives of this branch is the hope of democracy. The executive branch is far removed from popular influence, and the judicial branch is removed to a still greater distance. When, therefore, the Constitution declared that "all legislative powers" should be vested in the Congress the provision was not inadvertent. It was not an instance of "building better than they knew." It was a clear perception that a republican form of government, standing on broad and high compromise ground between monarchy and democracy, would swing toward monarchy by the augmentation of executive power and influence, and swing equally toward democracy by the legitimate exercise of power on the part of the legislative department of government.

What is wanted is that the prerogatives of the co-ordinate branches of the government shall be kept entirely free from all illegitimate influences of the other branches. Interference between these branches of the government will be temporary and transient, rogative of suggestion and advice into a right to coerce legislation will ultimately meet with defeat—a result which will contribute to the stability and repose of our republican form of government.

The Minority Stockholder.

If corporations were honestly administered the corporate method of doing business would long since have become the full equivalent of the most beneficent co-operation. The corporation with limited liability is the very ideal of safe, self-perpetuating business method.

Corporations are mere methods of partnership, and as already indicated, when properly managed, put into force the most valuable features of co-operation.

The majority control of corporations has become their one most conspicuous feature. The recent disclosures concerning the financial methods adopted by the New York life insurance companies have afforded a very broad insight into the uses which majority stockholders make of the power vested in them of absolute control through the election of subservient boards of directors. The surplus accumulation of the life insurance companies constitute a source of financial strength which, until the exposures, had not been suspected. One of the life insurance companies had accumulated a surplus of $67,000,000, and out of that sum one individual borrowed $50,000,000. The control of the affairs of the life insurance companies placed at the disposal of this financier practically unlimited capital.

Recently the charge has been made that Wells, Fargo & Company, a corporation with which we of California have been familiar for many years, has accumulated an undivided surplus of $12,000,000, and it is alleged that this has been permitted to accumulate because the majority stockholders have been able to wield this vast surplus in the interest of other corporate enterprises in which they are engaged.

It matters not who are the manipulators of the stocks so controlled or what the name of the corporation so administered, the chief significance lies in the disclosure of the reason for majority control of corporations. It has become the rule, with almost no exception, that corporations pay no dividends. They satisfy their stockholders with promises of the constantly increasing value of their stock, and the reason for this method of accumulating surplus capital is no longer obscure or doubtful. The surplus accumulation is under the control and direction of the majority stockholder. In many instances it requires a combination of two or more to constitute this majority, but there are banks that have declared no dividend for years, and yet they have reported a constantly increasing surplus. We have seen how life insurance companies have been accumulating vast sums which should have been distributed in the way of dividends to the policy holders. Some of the very largest corporations of the country have never declared a dividend. The oil companies of California were originally dividend paying companies, but as soon as the combination was effected they ceased to pay dividends, and began the process of accumulating a surplus. It is fast coming to be believed that the majority stockholder in any corporation has both the moral and the legal right to despoil the minority, and under these circumstances it is utterly inconceivable that any man should place any property he owns so far out of his own control as to become a minority stockholder in any corporation.

A reform in corporate methods will come when the people of this country are sufficiently intelligent as to corporate methods and the treatment of minority stockholders to result in their refusal to sustain that relation to any corporation. When the truth comes to be perceived the minority stockholder will understand that when he purchases stock he places his property entirely out of his own reach. He puts it in the hands of other men to be controlled as they see fit. If he were asked to make these men his trustees for the purpose of controlling his investment and administering his estate while he is still alive, he would refuse to create any such trusteeship, but that is exactly what he does when he becomes a minority stockholder in any corporation. Being in the minority he loses his control of his investment the instant it is made, and he vests the majority with the power to so administer the trust reposed in it as to secure to itself all possible profit from the enterprise in which it is engaged by the indirections already noted.

At the present rate of growth the population of the territory within a ten mile radius of the court house, Alameda county, will exceed the population of San Francisco within ten years. Within five years we may expect a "Greater Oakland," in which will be incorporated all the Alameda suburbs, and then "Greater Oakland" will comprise a population of at least 250,000. From that status to a population in excess of that of San Francisco the ascent will be easy.

Ex-Governor Henry T. Gage is being boomed by a very large element of the Republican party for the nomination for Governor in the current campaign. It is to be hoped that in the event of the nomination of Gage the Democrats will nominate ex-Governor "Buckboard Jim" Budd.

It is the testimony of current rumor that the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco will grant the overhead trolley privilege petitioned for by the commercial organizations owned and directed by the United Railroads. In this way public opinion is to score another victory. Hereafter when a corporation seeks the backing of popular sentiment it will proceed to organize a large number of "improvement" clubs and commercial organizations. The high value of resolution factories is only just coming to be perceived.

Recently collated statistics indicate that the number of passages between the city of San Francisco and the bay shore termini of lines of travel, including Martinez, Vallejo, Napa, Tiburon, Sausalito and the Alameda cities, aggregates 105,000 daily.

President Roosevelt is not a candidate for re-election, and if evidence of this fact were wanting it would be supplied by his statement to Gompers and company, in which he directed their attention to the murders committed by unionized labor when the aggressions and oppressions of capital are under consideration. No sane politician would characterize the killing of a "scab" as murder. Candidates for office must be very careful of any harsh criticisms of the pastime of any organization.

The theory of the defense against the charge of criminal assault in the case of Dorothy Olsen versus Lester McNulty, is that the exchange of glances on a street car between a man and a woman is equivalent to an agreement on the part of the woman to submit to a criminal assault, and the judicial principle sought to be established is that in all such cases the court should hold the woman strictly to her agreement.

Let the courts of Alameda county be the first to establish this great moral principle and thereby subvert the "rights of men." Judge Frick should plead that provision of the Constitution of the United States which declares that no law shall be enacted, and therefore no judicial determination reached, which shall impair the obligations of a contract.

HER FIRST PROPOSAL.

He vows my locks are like the wheat
Where Summer's feet have strolled,
And rippling winds and shimmering heat

Have kissed the green to gold.
Nor gossamer the fairies spin

Hath half so rare a hue,
And that his heart is meshed within—
I wonder is it true?

He vows my eyes have starry tints—
As in some forest nook
The starlight finds the violets' glint
Reflected in a brook—

And whispers, when he gazes long
Within those depths of blue,
To breathe is bliss, to live, a song—
I wonder is it true?

Afar, he vows, as some lone shell
That murmurs of the sea,
His loyal heart, 'neath love's sweet spell,

Forever dreams of me;
As sunflowers east to west the sun
With constant gaze pursue,
He'll worship me till life is done—
I wonder is it true?

HIS WIFE PAID ALL BILLS! SHE SUES FOR A DIVORCE!

NEW YORK, April 9.—Jones didn't pay the freight—and his wife got a divorce.

"Who paid the rent?" asked the attorney of Mrs. Ella Jones.

"I did," answered the good looking young wife, who is supposed to be about 22 or 23 years old.

"Who bought the provisions?"

"I did."

"Who purchased the furniture?"

"I did," repeated the young woman.

"We lived together for only three months. He never spent a cent of money during that time. He only worked for a couple of weeks and he said he needed that money. I work in a cigar factory."

On hearing this evidence a jury in Judge McCall's court gave the plaintiff a divorce from Frederick Jones. They were married in December, 1902, at Greeley. The charge was non-support. Mrs. Jones testified that she did not know where her husband is at present.

ENGAGED TO 50 MEN AT ONE TIME; GAY FLIRTATIONS

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.—Mrs. Ida Grace Macumber has been having the time of her life, being engaged to fifty different men at once, and each of the fifty has been sending her rings and bracelets and dress patterns and cute little slippers and things.

What makes this story peculiarly interesting is that Mrs. Macumber is now and has been for many years, an inmate of the State asylum for the insane in Nebraska.

She has been sending out letters to all kinds of men, telling how young and pretty and plump and pleasing and rich she was, and out of all the letters she sent she chose fifty men for her own true love.

She has a stack of presents piled up in her room that would start a small-sized department store. The superintendent of the asylum wondered where on earth the letters and presents came from, and, according to the laws of Nebraska, he had no power to open the letters or to intercept the bundles.

So the postmaster general was asked to step in, and yesterday he issued a fraud order, denying the use of the mails to the giddy and fascinating Mrs. Macumber.

AT 87, SPINSTER TURNS DRUMMER! BREAKS RECORD

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 9.—Although in her eighty-seventh year, Miss Serepa Pratt has taken a position as saleswoman for a Philadelphia house and is canvassing for the sale of shears. Miss Pratt commenced work on her last birthday and disposed of five pairs within the first hour, taking orders in nearly every house at which she called. One hundred pairs have thus far been disposed of by the aged woman, and only a very small portion of the territory assigned to her has been covered.

Miss Pratt is in excellent health and covers much of the country on foot, being convinced that her health is improved by walking. The record made by the aged "drummer" surpasses that of any other canvasser who has worked that territory for any line of goods, and her friends are astonished that she has been able to accomplish so much.

GRUESOME RIDE; WOMAN TAKES BONES OF HUSBAND

DENVER, April 9.—To make the long trip from Denver to St. Paul, Minn., with the shoulder blade the teeth and the lower bones of one leg and foot of her dead husband in her possession fell to the lot of Mrs. Helen A. Atchison, when she went to the eastern city to collect $2000 life insurance from the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

Mrs. Atchison's troubles began when her husband, Fuller W. Atchison, left his home in South Denver, March 8, 1904. He told his wife he intended to "commit suicide," but that his body would never be found or identified so that she could realize on the life insurance policy he carried.

In September, 1904, the bones of a man were found near Evergreen, Colo. They answered the description of certain marks Mr. Atchison had and were buried near Golden as his remains.

Mrs. Atchison attempted to collect her husband's insurance in this city but the Ancient Order of United Workmen held that the identification of the dead man was not complete. She then took the payment of the policy up with the St. Paul branch of the order, in which Mr. Atchison had held membership. Attorney F. D. Taggart of Denver was employed by the widow and the two made the trip to St. Paul with Mr. Atchison's bones last week.

They proved their case to the satisfaction of the St. Paul court and $2000, the full amount of the policy, was ordered to be paid Mrs. Atchison yesterday.

HEIRESS FALLS VICTIM TO MARRIED MAN'S BLACK EYES

NEW YORK, April 9.—The police are searching for Bessie Sikorski, a pretty eighteen-year-old heiress, of 8310 Exchange avenue, and Alex Sakoritz, who, her father charges, lured her away by hypnotism.

The young woman is the daughter of John Sikorski, a wealthy South Chicago coal dealer, who reported the alleged elopement to Captain O'Brien of the South Chicago Police Station.

The police say that Sakoritz has a wife and two children in Kenosha, Sakoritz and Miss Sikorski have been missing since last Thursday.

The young woman left her home at 7 o'clock in the morning. When she failed to return home her father went to the home of the man whom he had forbidden to visit his daughter. He found that Sakoritz, too, had disappeared, having packed his belongings and secretly taken them away.

"I noticed Sakoritz's peculiar black eyes," said the father. "I thought that he had hypnotized Bessie, and I told him to stay away, but he kept control of her and led her by his influence to elope with him. I will hunt for him until I capture him. Bessie must return and I will prosecute Sakoritz."

CATTLE KING ALLOWS WIFE 40 CTS. A DAY

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Charging that her husband, Walter H. Jones, a New Mexico cattle king, worth $500,000, owning vast herds of cattle and horses and with an income of $50,000 a year, had deserted her here on March 10, leaving her and her baby, less than three weeks old, penniless, Ethel Jones, of 720 East Sixteenth street, has brought suit against her husband in the Superior Court for $500 a month maintenance money.

The complaint declares that the young woman was married to Jones in Deming, N. M., July 1, 1905, and the husband had at once sworn to her and to her husband and brought her and her mother to Los Angeles.

There, declares the complaint, he left the young woman, giving her only three

SPEAKER HENDERSON'S POEM.

At the legislative memorial services in Des Moines, Ia., in honor of the late David B. Henderson, Representative A. F. Frudden of Dubuque read a poem entitled "Yes or No" which he said was written by Col. Henderson several years ago but had never before been given to the public. The poem reads:

Is there a mentor strong and good
That always indicates the road
Where we should go,
That tells us with unerring voice
Which of the words should be our choice—
The Yes or No?

We have the bibles of the earth,
With all their holy power and worth
And yet we know
The world is wild with disputation
As to the "true road to salvation"—
The Yes and No.

When seeking virtue's truest path
And all the purest gems she hath
Is there no woe?
Is there no doubt in noblest mind
Who in the word from heaven would find
The Yes or No?

Our hearts will whisper: "This is right,
Here live and love and drink delight
Nor dream of woe."
When reason suddenly cries out
In tones that fill the heart with doubt
And thunders: "No!"

MISS NOELLE DE GOLLA WHO WILL ENTERTAIN AT AN AFTER-TEA PLANNED FOR MRS. FRED DIEKMANN.

He died in a few years and the widow took her sister to Europe to live. In Egypt the rich young Lord Newborough met and fell in love with the younger. They were married in the Chapel Royal, Savoy, on November 7, 1900. Ambassador Choate gave the bride away. Imagine the sensation when an American woman to become queen of France! Yet such a thing is possible, for Lord Newborough, who married Grace Carr, once a barefoot girl of Kentucky, it is claimed, is really duke of Orleans and real pretender to the throne of France.

CONCERNING WOMEN.

It is considered an insult and extremely indelicate in India to refer to a woman's nose ring. It is the badge of wifehood, even more sacred than our wedding ring, set always with the costliest and most beautiful jewels a woman possesses and the last she will part with. Every orthodox Hindoo woman has her pak chahl, or "nose key," as it is called, usually two, one of precious jewels and costly pearls; the other a little plain gold safety pin, which is slipped in just as the great circle is being drawn out, for the nose must never for a moment be left free.

Lady Newborough was Miss Grace Carr of Louisville. Her sister is Mrs. Samuel Sloan Chauncey of Brooklyn. Some day it is possible, not probable, she may be queen of France. Two things are necessary to that end: first, a recognition by the French courts of Lord Newborough's right to the title of Duke of Orleans and head of the house of Bourbon, and second, a revolution in France that would seat him upon the throne. Col. Carr died and the girls were left in straitened circumstances. Friends took them to Florida, where the rich Dr. Chauncey

It is most important for one who has the care of an invalid to go out into the world as often as possible and brush against her fellow men, for it not only diverts the mind from its responsibilities, but it gives new subjects to talk about when the invalid must be amused, for in this way only are new ideas to be imbibed to stimulate and freshen the faded life of the home-tied sufferer. Plenty of rest must be taken, even if the invalid is unreasonable and considers herself neglected. Too hastily swallowed meals should be avoided in the effort to make the days long enough to do everything that must be done. Remember that the mistress of the house has many more demands upon her time and patience than the exacting invalid, and that if her health is not protected there may be two invalids in place of one.

BILL FOR SILK STOCKINGS TOO LARGE, SAYS GERMANY

PARIS, April 9.—Grand Duchess Anastasia, mother of the German crown princess, has informed the host of man milliners that she is no longer responsible for her daughter's things and will not pay any bills. "Bother the Kaiser if you like—I wash my hands of the whole business," she said to a leading furnisher.

The furnisher told to go to the Kaiser has a bill of 40,000 francs against Cella for silk stockings and even a more formidable one for chemises and things. He says her imperial highness can't help it, as she is the most fastidious woman in the world. "Changes her stockings and linen three times a day, and, like Boni Castellane, refuses to wear any laundried things whatever."

"The crown princess' stockings for everyday use," he continued, "are so fine that you might carry half a dozen of them in your watchcase, while her stockings for state occasions are of the most elaborate description, even more elaborate than her mother, Anastasia's. The embroidery covering the entire leg is all handmade and real gold and silver thread is used throughout."

"Her highness is especially pleased with little cupids and bows and arrows and similar ornaments not devoid of meaning. Her trousseau contained eight dozen chemises all of the finest batiste, with Valenciennes lace and gold and silver embroidery, but she ordered twelve dozen sets more since her marriage."

MAN GOES TO A COURT TO BUY HIM A WIFE

PIERCE, Neb., April 9.—"Wives for sale." This is the sign that a young farmer from Cedar county, Neb., who did not give his name, expected to find displayed in the court room of Judge Kelly of Pierce. At least this is the classified ad, that he wanted filed, and he was utterly dumbfounded when Judge Kelly informed him that there were no wives to be had in that court.

The young man was evidently a farm hand. He entered the court room bashfully and tiptoed up to Judge Kelly's desk, where the judge sat working.

"What can I do for you?" asked the judge in a dignified tone.

"I want to get married," answered the stranger.

Whereupon the court began making out the marriage license which he supposed was wanted. He handed it over to be filed out and his visitor looked astonished.

"But where is my wife?" asked he of romantic type.

When informed that wives were not furnished with the licenses, the young man turned speedily and made a dash for the door. He has not been heard from since.

GIRL AWAKES FROM SEVEN WEEKS' MYSTERIOUS SLEEP

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Miss Flor-Tucson, Ariz., and gradually lapsed once Parker, whose mysterious sleep into coma. For weeks she lay in a for seven weeks excited the interest of the medical fraternity, has left the hospital. Miss Parker is the daughter of a wealthy Arizona mining however, and has gradually come into man. She began her strange sleep at a normal condition.

GIRL FELS A BURGLAR WITH A CHAIR IN DARK

WICHITA, Kan., April 9.—Miss Halie Crawford, a student at the Friends' University, knocked down a burglar with a chair, beat him over the head until he was almost insensible and then fainted before she could reach a telephone and notify the police.

Miss Crawford lives at Garden Plain, a little town west of this city. During the school year she rooms at the home of S. S. Findley, banker and capitalist, at 1150 University avenue.

The other evening Mr. and Mrs. Findley went out, leaving Miss Crawford sick in bed in her room on the second floor.

Shortly after Mr. and Mrs. Findley departed Miss Crawford was awakened by a noise downstairs. She listened and heard somebody dump the contents of several drawers of a sideboard on the floor.

After ransacking these the intruder started upstairs. When he reached the second floor he went into the room adjoining that occupied by Miss Crawford. He dumped the contents of the drawers and chiffoniers on the floor and made a careful search for valuables.

When he finished this exploration, the marauder started for Miss Crawford's room. She had been standing in the door watching the burglar, but when the man started toward her, she noiselessly closed the door and took hold of a chair.

She stepped back of the door and, as the thief turned the knob, and stepped into the room, she hurled the chair down on his head with all her force.

The burglar was knocked down, and just as he was attempting to rise, Miss Crawford swung the chair above her head and brought it down a second time on the burglar's head.

She struck him two or three times more before he struggled to his feet and ran out of the door. He was dazed and staggered from the force of the blows, and, just as he reached the stairway, he fell.

He rolled to the foot of the stairs and lay there.

Miss Crawford turned back to her room to dress and go downstairs and telephone for the police, but just as she started to turn the electric light switch she fainted.

save when the sight is especially strong and, therefore, I am going to write an article in favor of the abolition of the veil. But since scientific attacks abolish nothing, I shall include in my article helpful hints to the vain wearers of the veil. I shall tell these ladies what kind of veils will injure their eyes least. The least objectionable veil is without dots, sprays or figures. Its meshes, large and regular, are made of single, compact threads. The plain veil, with its meshes made of double threads, is the next least harmful one. Then comes the figured veil—the veil with dots and diamonds and other ornamentation upon it. This veil is very bad indeed."

Polka dots appear in large scattered dots upon plain grounds, both in batistes and muslins. A lovely costume of rose-colored gingham, polka dotted, was made on the guilpe order. The bodice laced in front over the bust with narrow black velvet ribbon. The effect over a blouse of Swiss and lace was wonderfully charming. The flounces of this gown's skirt were scalloped with finished embroidered edges in white.

White veillings verging into thin silky serges and extremely light wools of a basket weave and lustrous mohairs and silkencens are being shown for seashore wear. These, as the checked veillings, are being made into jacket and skirt gowns in either fancy or length coats. A tendency to touches of color is an agreeable note in these gowns. Bright braids or galleons or pretty velvet suggestions appear, making the newest gowns of white wool entirely individual with this season.

A particularly smart white serge made by one of our cleverest tailors as part of a Palm Beach outfit had a short half-fitted coat, the seams of which were outlined almost in military fashion with wide silk hercules braid. The empire line was just suggested in the coat's back by set-in squares of green panne velvet, below which hung the serge in an inverted box-plot. In front the squares of velvet appeared at the bustline, while the braid was outlined by Richelieu platings.

WHAT SHE REMEMBERED.

"Now, Mrs. Jones," said the prosecuting attorney to the witness, "will you tell us what Mrs. Smith said just before the shooting?"

Mrs. Jones—Oh, that was so long that I can't remember what she did say. But she wore a plum-colored dress, with a bolero coat and applique on the revers. And she wore a turban hat with a pompon on the left side, and as I am under oath I tell you now that it was right. Her skirt was made in seven gores with a long bounce.

But here the prosecuting attorney succeeded in breaking in on the nar-

PROTEST IS MADE BY WOMEN

MANY HOUSEWIVES OF SAN LEANDRO OBJECT TO REVISION OF LAWS.

SAN LEANDRO, April 9.—The matter of moving to provide High School facilities for the children of San Leandro is again a live question and will be taken up for discussion and action, in all probability, at the meeting of the Board of Trade this evening.

The principal interest and questioning now is as to the legal method of getting in and getting out of Union High School district No. 1 and out of financial responsibility that would be incurred by going into that district, as well as the financial conditions of membership there. If satisfactory information is not obtained in time for presentation at the meeting, it is probable that a resolution will be presented directing the committee already appointed to that particular point.

GROVE PICNIC.
Council California No. 55, U. P. E. C., with the San Leandro band and friends, will picnic in the San Lorenzo Grove Sunday, May 20, the second annual picnic.

TO ESTABLISH NEW DEPARTMENT

BERKELEY, April 9.—The National Educational Association, which will hold its annual convention in San Francisco in the month of July, is to establish a new department, known as the department of technical education. In order on the creation of this new branch of the association, Professor Wickson of the State University has been called upon to prepare a paper to be read at the meeting. His subject will be "The Agricultural College and its Relationship to the Scheme of National Education." Professor Wickson is also slated to attend the convention of the American Association of American Nurserymen, also to be held in July, at Urbana, Texas. His address at that meeting is on "Specific Requirements of the New Varieties in California Fruit Growing."

ELECTION IN ATHENS.

ATHENS, April 9.—The ministerialists won a sweeping victory at yesterday's elections. All the ministers were re-elected and the Theotokists, or followers of M. Theotokis, the premier, secured 107 out of the 188 deputies known up to the present time to be elected.

ONLY SIX FIRE PLAN FREQUENT ALARMS

HAYWARD'S DEPARTMENT CHIEF
MAKES A GOOD ANNUAL SHOWING.

HAYWARD, April 9.—On the strength of a request from the fire department, the town board has re-appointed Chief William Zambresky of the department and Assistant Chief Elmer Patterson for the coming year. In both the fire department and the community the opinion is that they have proved themselves the right men for the place. Fires during the year have been very few and the damage very little, considering all things with which the department has to contend.

In his annual report, recently presented Chief Zambresky says that but six alarms were noted during the past year, and they were caused by defective flues or exploding oil stoves. Ten new hydrants were recommended for the fast growing hill residence sections, two for Hayward Hill, one at the extreme southern end of Castro street, one at the northern end of B street, and six more in other parts of town. It was represented that the hydrants attached to the water company's two-inch mains are of very little use to the department, and yet are being charged to the department at the same rate as charged for the four-inch ones with high pressure.

The board desired the chief to file a statement showing the location of the present hydrants and the number actually having pressure enough to combat a blaze. When that is done the board will take the matter up with the water company.

TO BE GRAVELED.
The board will also expend, as per vote $250 on putting gravel in the chuck holes on Castro street, which it is figured will make it do until weather time again or until it can be graded and macadamized.

S. P. R. S. I.
The ladies of the S. P. R. S. I. of Hayward are already making preparations for the entertainment of the delegates to the supreme council of the order, which meets in Hayward in July.

AUTO CRASHES INTO CAR

PARTY IN MACHINE HAS A NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

ALAMEDA, April 9.—What might have proved a very serious accident occurred about 6 o'clock last evening when H. M. Kobby and a party in his automobile crashed into a car of the San Jose avenue line at the corner of Park street and Central avenue. The machine, under the guidance of Mr. Kobby, who is president of the North Side Improvement Club, had as its occupants the family of the chauffeur, consisting of Mrs. H. M. Kobby, Miss Josephine Kobby and Master Morris Kobby.

They were proceeding at a rapid rate of speed in a westerly direction on Central avenue, and the car was traveling northerly at the time down Park street. The auto collided with the car, striking it at a point just in front of the rear step. Luckily the occupants were not thrown out, and escaped without injury, although badly frightened.

The electric car was in charge of Motorman William Jordan and Conductor John Clarkson. The motorman claims that at the time the accident occurred the automobile was traveling at a speed of at least thirty miles an hour. No warning took of the horn was given. He did all in his power, he avers, to check the speed of his car in order to avert a serious accident. There were only three passengers in the trolley car, and the mishap caused them little apprehension.

TO SPEAK BEFORE THE Y. M. C. A.

BERKELEY, April 9.—The Berkeley Y. M. C. A. will turn out in force on next Wednesday evening, when H. J. McCoy of San Francisco, for twenty-five years general secretary of the association, will deliver an illustrated lecture at Siles Hall on the subject "Young Men in Action."

ELMHURST RESIDENTS NOTE WITH JOY RAILROAD IMPROVEMENT.

ELMHURST, April 9.—Part of Elmhurst expects to bathe the swim of prosperity soon, if not the whole place. The Southern Pacific cut-off from the Niles line to the Newark line from Elmhurst to South San Leandro has been finished, the lumber for the new depot is on the ground and indicates that the structure will be of good size and the short piece of the second double broadgauge track which is still lacking between Matrose and Fruitvale is to be built as soon as the weather surely settles; so Elmhurst people think they are soon to have frequent local service by the Southern Pacific.

The Stone Company is all prepared for the rush to have two subdivisions for sale in lot form—one on either side of the main track where the cut-off starts.

STILL FOR HIGH SCHOOL

SAN LEANDRO PEOPLE LOOKING FOR WAY TO GET SUCH FACILITIES.

SAN LEANDRO, April 9.—There is something doing in the taxation question in San Leandro. The item of $25 a quarter tax on vegetable peddlers, recently levied by the town board, has been questioned by the women of the town, or a respectable number of them.

They have prepared and presented to the board a petition, asking for a revision of the item. Without the franchise being extended, they have, by their action, entered into politics in the most practical way. Their petition reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned, householders of the city of San Leandro, do petition your honorable body to repeal the ordinance recently passed requiring peddlers to pay a license of $25 per quarter. Our reasons for such a request is that there are many things brought into our town by these vendors which cannot be obtained at our local stores. We make special mention of the vegetable peddler (Chinamen) whose wares have become a necessity to us. To cut off this supplies would work great hardship to the housekeepers."

Mrs. W. J. McCoy, Mrs. Wanamaker, Mrs. M. Webber, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. H. Bradley, Mrs. Ivy, Mrs. Polier, Mrs. A. Toffelmier, Mrs. Quinn, Mrs. Estudillo, Mrs. E. L. McVorthy, Mrs. J. L. Bundoek, Mrs. DuBois, Mrs. Carroll.

Their petition was placed "on file" by the city fathers; but setting the cable and having fresh vegetables and other good things for a lot of hungry men folk is a real thing to women, and the city fathers may find it advisable to take the cable off "on file" without any disrespect to the green goods merchants of the town, for whose benefit the item was originally adopted, and give the whole question a revision.

COLLEGE SOCIETY IS POPULAR

EASTERN UNIVERSITIES ASK FOR CHARTERS FROM MIM KAPH MIM SOCIETY.

BERKELEY, April 9.—The fame of the Mim Kaph Mim, the senior honor society of the University, has reached to the far East and already charters have been asked for by the universities and colleges throughout the United States. The learning and fame of such men as Professors O'Neill and W. B. Rising of the University of California, and Professor Stillman of Stanford, who are associated with the society, have attracted the attention of the institutions of the East.

The latest organization to ask for membership in the chemistry of the Chemistry Club of Stanford University. In a letter addressed to President W. A. Markley, of the local society, the chemists at Palo Alto have asked for an affiliation with the Berkeley society, wanting the privileges and advantages that the best organization has to offer, and is looked on with particular favor and it is likely that the new chapter will be installed in a short time.

BOTH INTOXICATED.
BERKELEY, April 9.—For being found in an intoxicated condition on the streets of Berkeley John McInerney, a gardener, and Mrs. Wilson, a resident of Berkeley, were put behind the bars this morning by Marshall Vollmer.

NO LOVE FOR WOMAN HUSBAND HER RIVAL ATTACK IS MADE DURING PERFORMANCE IN ORPHEUM THEATER.

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—I. B. Newton, president of the Harper-Reynolds Company, and well-known local capitalist, soon after her marriage she went to Europe for a six months' stay, which, against his wishes, was continued until November 27 last. While abroad she had traveled extensively on the continent.

Mr. Newton testified that he married Mrs. E. R. Newton more than a year and a half ago. She had previously been divorced from E. T. Earl, a local capitalist. Soon after her marriage she went to Europe for a six months' stay, which, against his wishes, was continued until November 27 last. While abroad she had traveled extensively on the continent.

He said that after her return to New York he heard from her the last time on December 20. He did not know that she had left New York until a letter of his was returned from the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York. He then began to make inquiries as to her whereabouts, and in the midst of this he received a telegram from her at San Francisco asking for money. He wrote that he would meet her there. She promptly wrote him that he need not come. It was brought out that at the time Mrs. Newton went to Europe she had remarked that she never intended to live with her husband again. She only returned to Los Angeles from San Francisco to attend to her private business here. There is no community property in California. It is reported that she made $100,000 in Wall Street while in New York by means of a tip given her by a friend.

Mrs. Newton's former home was Sacramento, where her family, the Runyons, is among the most prominent in Central California.

CONSOLIDATION ACT TO BE PROTESTED

BERKELEY, April 9.—The improvement clubs of Berkeley are making arrangements to down the proposed consolidation of Berkeley with Oakland. With the citizens of Alameda a monster mass meeting will be held in the Encinal City on the evening of April 14 to protest against the union of Alameda, Berkeley and Oakland. Special cars have been arranged for to carry the Berkeley contingent to Alameda.

PROTEST AGAINST STREET OPENING

BERKELEY, April 9.—The citizens of Berkeley are up in arms against the proposed action of the Board of Trustees of the town in opening up Prince street between College and Claremont. Already four petitions have been sent to the town clerk and filed for the interests of the property owners along the proposed opening of the street. The Board of Trustees meet tonight at which time the matter will be brought up and the remonstrances of the petitioners will be looked into.

MARKET MAN ARRESTED.

BERKELEY, April 9.—J. Salzberger, proprietor of the Berkeley Fruit Market, at 2107 Alston way, was arrested early this morning on the charge of violating the ordinance which prohibits the sale of undrawn poultry. The trial has been set for Wednesday at 10 o'clock.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—An irate wife severely horsewhipped the husband from whom she is separated, and the woman she accuses of causing the separation, in the midst of a crowded playhouse, with the gallery gods cheering the performers and the stage actors singing an appropriate melody. Also an irate client, panic only prevented from attacking dangerous proportions by prompt action of employees.

Mrs. Marsh was a performance at the Orpheum Theater last evening which was not on the program. It was a scene from real life, and highly melodramatic. It came off during the first intermission.

The actors were J. W. Marsh, proprietor of the Lafayette saloon in Sacramento, a rascally fellow; Mrs. Marsh, his wife, and Miss A. Murray, also of Sacramento, whom Mrs. Marsh accuses of breaking up her home.

Mrs. Marsh had been sitting quietly in the audience, when suddenly Miss Murray screamed aloud in pain and alarm, and Mrs. Marsh, with a whip across her face, administered by Mrs. Marsh, accompanied by the angry words, "You will steal my husband from me, will you?"

The lash from the whip was followed by others in quick succession, and Miss Murray was so overpowered that she could do nothing but cover her face with her hands and bend screaming before the storm of blows.

Mrs. Marsh had been acquainted with the fact that her husband was to take Miss Murray to the theater. From the deliberate way in which she acted it is believed that she must have planned beforehand to wreak her vengeance on her husband and humiliate him and Miss Murray in public. She arrived at the Orpheum with a friend, Mrs. Barringer, during the first intermission. Leaving the latter outside, she entered the theater and went straight to where her husband was sitting. She drew a small whip from underneath the fur box she was wearing and proceeded to belabor Miss Murray with the lash. Many times the whip rose and fell, but Mrs. Marsh was so blinded by her anger that she did not see that she was hitting her husband. Mrs. Marsh's whole face had turned red with the effort toward her husband.

Mr. Marsh did not return to the theater until during the second intermission in the performance. When he did so he was greeted with the cheers and hand-clappings of the gallery gods, and the actor who then had the stage, started in to sing, "Please, Please, Nicodemus, Please Won't You Come Back Home," to the delight of the crowd.

MARSH TALKS OF TROUBLES.
Marsh says that he and his wife have been separated for between four and five years. He has no complaints to make against her and says that she is a good woman. He acknowledges that Mrs. Murray was the cause of their separation and avers that he would marry her, if the present Mrs. Marsh would consent to divorce. This she has so far refused to do.

It is said that Mrs. Marsh has attempted once before to revenge herself on her husband by causing the separation. That was about two years ago when she drew a revolver and fired at her in front of the Alhambra Theater. She did no more damage, however, than to give her a slight scalp wound.

POOL EXPERTS TO PLAY IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

World's Honors at Stake in Match.

A world's championship pool match for $500 and a championship emblem is to be held in San Francisco at the Savoy billiard parlors for four nights beginning tonight. Thomas Hueston, champion of the world, and Joseph W. Carney of San Francisco being the contestants.

The match is to be for 800 balls in blocks of 200 a night.

This is stated by pool authorities to be the only championship game ever held on the coast.

The emblem was originally won by d'Oro in the second of two matches (the first was a tie between d'Oro, Kough and Hueston) by nine points over Hueston. Hueston then challenged d'Oro, who refused to play thus forfeiting the emblem to Hueston.

Cowboy Kid Weston sent a challenge to Hueston, who accepted and beat him handily.

Joe Leon, manager of Hueston, has stated that it took five years of hard practice and a small fortune to acquire the championship and he would not like to lose it without a hard fight.

Hueston is expected by the pool fans to win, but a few are taking bets of 10 to 5 that Carney will keep the medal in the state. Both men have been practicing hard and they realize that it will be a bitterly fought struggle.

THOMAS HUESTON, CHAMPION POOL PLAYER OF THE WORLD, WHO DEFENDS TITLE TONIGHT.

ARE NATIONALS HEADIER IN GAME?

"I don't like to say anything derogatory to American League ball," remarked Frank Chance recently, "but I can't help thinking that the Nationals play the headier game. And why? On account of the way our games with the Sox were played last fall—and I have heard a few things from the New York players, too."

"In our games, no matter what play might come up, we seemed to have not the slightest trouble in beating them to it, and we outplayed them all through the series. At first we thought we were only playing in luck, but something that happened in a game where we caught them behind showed us that we had them."

"They had us 5 to 2 and all bets seemed off. We had a man on third and one on first and I thought it a cinch that Sullivan could get our runner going down to second. Nevertheless, as the situation was desperate, the steal sign was given, and away went the runner. You know how Kling always stops that kind of play. John looks toward third and the man on first base hurries back. But as John looks to third he fires the ball to second—and he gets his man."

"Well, instead of doing that, Sullivan makes the short throw to Davis, who came tearing in, expecting the man on third to be coming home. Everybody safe and the next man hit, sending a run across, while the situation was again the same—man on first and third. Sullivan, if they'd do that foolish thing once, maybe they'll do it again," and gave the signal for a steal. Away went the runner and again Sullivan and Davis made the same foolish mistake. Those who play convinced me that we had them on head work as well as the mechanical part of the game."

EXPERTS MEET IN BILLIARD TOURNEY

NEW YORK, April 9.—The billiard masters who will begin to play at Madison Square Garden tonight for the world's championship at 18-inch ball, two shots in, took final practice last night.

Louis Cure, the French champion, and Ora C. Morringstar, the New York Paris master, will meet in the opening game, at 500 points up. Tomorrow afternoon George E. Sutton of Paris will cross cues with Albert G. Cutter of Boston, and tomorrow night George E. Sutton will meet the loser of tonight's game.

Edward McLaughlin, the veteran "shortstop," will referee all the games. In addition to the prize money of $3000 and the entrance fees of $1000, the total gate receipts will be divided among the seven players. The winner will receive 40 per cent of the prize money and the $3000 championship cup.

The games are: Eppie, Schaefer, Sutton, Cure, Morringstar and Cutter. Sutton played two practice games yesterday. In the afternoon, he beat George E. Sutton by a score of 400 to 174. The winner averaged 22 a 18 and made high runs of 72, 82 and 49. Slossom won up his practice by beating Harry Cline by a score of 400 to 136. The winner averaged 26 a 18 and made high runs of 90, 86 and 67.

BAUM DECIDES TO JOIN THE OUTLAWS

"Spider" Baum, one of Morley's Los Angeles pitchers of last year, who has fallen out to come to terms with the Southern manager for this season's services, yesterday received a telegraphic offer from the Altoona, Pa., team of the so-called "outlaw" league, and last night wired his acceptance.

Baum did not say what the offer was, but stated that it was more than twice what Morley wanted him to play for. He will leave within a few days for Cumberland, Md., where the Altoona team is practicing.

This is the club that Tim Flood joined and report has it that the scrappy second baseman not only gets a big salary from the Altoona management, but has an iron-clad contract calling for two years' services with him money for the full

GREAT CARD OF BOXING BOUTS

Everything is in readiness for the Reliance Club's boxing night tomorrow night and the sports have prepared themselves for a good night's entertainment in the club's spacious gymnasium.

The boxing fans always feel sure of seeing some good bouts at the Reliance Club, as this organization has always given them the best there was to be had, even though it might mean financial loss. In this manner the club has gained the confidence of the public.

The card to be presented tomorrow night is a particularly strong one and a large crowd no doubt will be on hand to cheer the boxers on to victory.

The entertainment will open with J. Walsh and Al Dowd in the ring. Neither of these boys has fought before in Oakland. Walsh is a beginner and Dowd has only had one contest. They have been essentially tried out and have both made good. Dowd is an aggressive chap and will make things lively when he gets started. Walsh is a fairly clever boxer with a fair punch. He says that Dowd cannot come too fast for him.

Young Gaulty and Harry Brown will come together in the next event. Brown is the younger who gave Jockey Zinglish such a good fight here several months ago. He is a clever boxer and has a rushing punch for a small man. His contest with English was one of the best ever seen in Oakland. Gaulty is well known to the fans, and it must be said of him that he never failed to give the patrons a good run for their money when pitted against a man his weight.

COMING SCRAPPERS.

In the contest between Loren Brown and Young Herrera that is to follow there should be plenty of action. Herrera is a rushing fighter, boring in from the top of the bell until the contest has ended. He has had a few fights but none of them have gone the limit, which shows that he is not only strong and aggressive but that he does lots of damage to his opponents. Brown is the best man he has yet met and should prove a good trial horse for the fast coming young scrappers.

Danny Lynch and Charlie Lavigne will clash in the next. Lynch will be a surprise to the Oakland fans. He is an aggressive fellow who knows no stop. He will not doubt make a big hit with the fans. Lavigne has a sleep producer in his right mitt, however, and if Danny runs into it the curtain will fall right there.

Chris Hampton and Jack Brock, the heavyweights, will then be introduced. Brock is sure he will win and does not hesitate to say so. In fact, he has advised all his friends to bet on him. He says he knows he is not a pretty boxer but when he gets in action Hampton will have all he can do to keep away from him.

The ability of the principals in the main event has been thoroughly gone over before the card and the only thing left to say is that when Young McConnell and Jack Brock of Sacramento come together it should prove the best four-round contest yet seen in this city.

The demand for reserved seats has been large.

LADS DEFEAT RIVALS IN GAME

The Young Oaklanders defeated the Young Buttricks by a score of 5 to 2 Saturday. The feature of the game was the pitching of Walker, who struck out fourteen men. The line-up of the Oaklanders is as follows: Pitcher, Walker; catcher, Burke; first base, Riordan; second base, Archambault; third base, Faneuf; shortstop, J. Connors; center field, Richey; left field, James Riordan.

FAITHFULNESS TO DUTY

Power always carries its own duties and obligations. The duty that goes with the large resources and facilities of the American Cigar Company is to give the public better cigars, not only for a few months, but for all time. Every cigar from a box marked with the "A" (Triangle A) proves the faithful performance of this duty. An excellent representative of the "A" brands is the

RENOWN CIGAR—FIVE CENTS

One of the immense advantages symbolized by the "A" mark is the exceptional grading facilities of the American Cigar Company. The enormous quantity of tobacco used in the many "A" brands permits a closer and more extensive grading of qualities than is possible with the manufacturer who buys in smaller quantities.

The ordinary manufacturer, purchasing in small and scattered lots, unavoidably works into his cigars all the poorer qualities of leaf and the result to the smoker is varying and uneven cigars.

With the American Cigar Company this is unnecessary as all classes and grades of cigars are produced up to the finest Domestic qualities and every grade of tobacco can be utilized exactly where it belongs.

HARD LUCK AND POOR UMPIRING CONTRIBUTED MATERIALLY TO THE TWO DEFEATS WITH WHICH OAKLAND STARTED THE SEASON AT LOS ANGELES.

In Saturday's game, which was a pitchers' battle throughout, honors were fairly even between Graham and Gray until the ninth inning, when by locating Dolly's curves the Athenians hammered out one run and tied the score.

The Angels came back with one more in the last half of the inning. Atz tripled to right and came home on a hit to the pitcher, which Graham fielded to the plate. Phil Knell called the runner safe, although the crowd disagreed with the decision. Knell's work was a trifle raw and it was very apparent that the old timer was nervous. Score, 2 to 1.

SECOND TIME.

In yesterday's contest came the hard luck, for although Van's men outbatted Morley's followers and got a total of eight hits off Tozer's delivery, while Hopkins pitched only five, they were unable to get but a single run across the plate. The Southerners got three runs out of five hits off Hopkins.

Neither team played cleanly in the field, each making three errors. Los Angeles had the game safe after the seventh inning when they scored two runs. All of the hits on both sides were singles.

Oakland overlooked an excellent chance of winning the game in the first inning, when, with two out and the bases filled, Van Halteren went to the bat. Seven hits were made by the Angels, but the rooting for Van to "hit it out," but he

With the aid of Albert Munn, the long-legged athlete who brought victory to Oakland High school at Stanford recently, the local lads again won a victory Saturday, this time taking first place in the A. PHOENIX REORGANIZE IN ADVANCE FOR NEXT YEAR

That the members of the Phoenix team of St. Mary's College and their supporters felt very keenly the overwhelming defeat administered to them by Santa Clara College recently is shown by the fact that they have already begun to plan for a victory next year by making preparations thus far in advance for next season's team.

If the weather does not interfere, the Phoenix team will play the Stanford nine on the St. Mary's campus tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. On Thursday the St. Mary's boys go to Stanford to play the same team there.

After these two contests the Phoenix players will disband for the season, and the new team in 1916, which has already been selected, will be organized and started at practice. This means that the players of the present team who will not be in college next year are to be eliminated from the line-up, thus giving the new team all the splendid chance to get its team work perfected and everything ready for a possible victory next season.

This does not mean that no more games will be played this season besides the two mentioned, but merely that the new team will do the work.

The line-up of the new aggregation will be as follows: McGreggor and Thompson, pitchers; Dunn, catcher; Brady, first base; Hildebrand, second base and captain; Halloran, shortstop; Hemo, third base; Thompson, leftfield; Haley, centerfield and manager; Rogers, rightfield.

Brother Joseph will look after the finances of the team.

THREE FOR SEATTLE.

Seattle also has yet to win a game, having dropped the first three to San Francisco. The element of luck also has been a factor in the team's record. The Swashes outbatted their opponents.

CLOSES SERIES OF LENTEN SERMONS

"Strength Against Sin" was the subject chosen by the eloquent young orator, Reverend Father Francis Harvey, M. A. For the closing discourse of his Sunday evening series of Lenten sermons. He said in part:

"God's grace is our only strength against sin, and a realization of our weakness, our dependence upon this grace is the necessary condition for obtaining it. Undoubtedly a man realizes his weakness, his dependence most fully when he is engaged in his spiritual life. When one kneels regularly to examine his conscience, places himself in spirit at the foot of the cross, and summons before his mind's eye all the sins that have sapped the strength of soul, the frailty of his flesh, and the weakness of human will are born upon him, as well as his own inability to undo aught of the guilty past. To be satisfying, or pure, or strong, man's life must link itself through Christ and the graces that are His to God and breathe by His inspiration. When we begin each day and each undertaking with the thought, 'I do it not of myself so much as the grace of God working through me,' we are laboring with the graces, we are weak mortals, and I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me."

"Consider the wonderful way through which our cravings for strength are met in Jesus of Nazareth, who, by His mighty sympathy, touching as He does all the experiences of our daily lives. Enthroned in heaven with His Eternal Father, He has yet walked in our midst, a real man among men, though He had the august majesty of the Seraphim veil their faces, yet the little children have caught at His beckoning hand and nestled on His breast. By the tenderness and power of His mind and His strength, that is His to God and breathe by His inspiration. When we begin each day and each undertaking with the thought, 'I do it not of myself so much as the grace of God working through me,' we are laboring with the graces, we are weak mortals, and I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me."

HEINE'S GREAT WORK.

There was a large contingent of students from the University present to the Hultenauer play, and the big first baseman gave his friends an exhibition of heavy hitting. The first two trips to the bag resulted in two boppers, the third time he knocked a fast grounder between first and second which would have been a hit but for a phenomenal stop by Mobler. The fourth time Henry faced the pitcher, Spencer, who was fielding with his back against the score board gathered in one of the longest flies that was ever hit at Alcazar.

The score was 1 to 1 when San Francisco went to bat in the seventh. Seagraves hit a double, the bases were singled, stole second and came home on Street's hit over second base. Oscar Torres pitched for Seattle. He struck out seven men and allowed only five hits.

CLEVER STORIES OF TILLMAN

HOW THE PITCHFORK STATES- MAN KEEPS THINGS LIVELY IN WASHINGTON.

Every day is Tillman's day in the Senate. The Senator from South Carolina has developed into a poet. He was asked when he would write his book in response to the criticisms of the Senate. "I have neither the ability nor the time to write a book," said Senator Tillman, "but I can write poetry. Watch me!" Senator Tillman sat down and wrote these lines on a typewriter:

USE ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE,

A powder to be shaken into the shoes. Four feet feel swollen, nervous and lame, and get tired easily. If you have aching feet, try Allen's Foot-Ease. It cures the feet and makes new or tight shoes easy. Cures aching, swollen, sweating feet, blisters and callous spots. Relieves chilblains, corns and bunions. All over the country. Try it today. Sold by all Druggists and Shoe Stores. Do not accept any substitute. Trial package FREE. Address Allen S. Dimond, 12 Boy, N. Y.

devoted to politics out the necessity for a careful legislation and other public men. Judge Humphrey's recent decision in the best trust cases. The Wisconsin Senator objected that his friend was going too far, and he said that it was the duty of the Senate to be a judicial body. "I don't need the mileage," he kept telling the Speaker every time the Speaker laid down a proposition which, when dissected of its word covering, meant "I don't need the mileage," he kept telling the Speaker. "Why, if I am to vote your convictions on this matter instead of mine, I might send you my proxy and stay in Wyoming," said Mondell. "The only thing I would lose would be mileage." The Speaker did not like the argument, so Mondell is marked as being given over to his idols in irrepressible fashion.

SENTENCED FOR THEFT.
George Snow, who says he hails from Detroit, Michigan, got rather a chilly reception in sunny California. He seems to have a mania for taking tin snips. The fellow picked up a pair at Frank Woods' plumbing shop and sold the same to H. O. Gendine. In a few minutes he came back with a second pair, but where he got them is not known, and sold them to the second hand man. He was arrested and brought before Judge Hull, who gave him sixty days.

NOTES.
Articles of incorporation of the Pioneer Electric Construction Company have been filed with the County Clerk. The directors are John V. Galbraith, Charles Concaumon and H. B. Kinney. Each director has paid up $500.
The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church under the presidency of Mrs. W. V. Butterfield, is doing a vast amount of good in charitable and benevolent work. The society meets this afternoon with Mrs. McHenry to sew for orphans.

OF LABOR

SO SAYS METHODIST BISHOP IN ADDRESSING NEW YORK CONFERENCE.

NEW YORK, April 9.—In the course of his sermon before the New York East Conference in the New York Avenue M. E. Church, Brooklyn, yesterday, Rev. Charles C. McCabe, D. D., the presiding bishop, referred to the attitude of the Methodist Church toward labor.

Telling of the building of Solomon's Temple by 80,000 men, the bishop said that 3600 of these were overseers. They were the right kind of walking delegates, he said. "These men were walking delegates who saw that their companions did a proper share of their work. How would it have been had these walking delegates told the other 76,000 that if they did not join the union they could have no hand in rearing the great temple?"

PROFESSOR OF FEMALE COL- LEGE PREVENTS LYNCH- ING BY ARGUMENT.

MERIDIAN, Miss., April 8.—The coolness of Professor J. W. Beeson, of the Meridian Female College, prevented the lynching of a negro who shot Branscom Farmer, a streetcar conductor. Early yesterday morning a mob located the negro at the college, where he had been employed, and prepared to make an attack. Professor Beeson secreted the negro and argued the mob into dispersing by promising to deliver the negro to the police on Monday. The shooting occurred over the refusal of the negro to pay fare for a 12-year-old boy who accompanied him on the car. The conductor, it is believed, will recover.
